

Our Values

- Transparency & Open Minds
- Respect & Humility
- Data & Information
- Logic & Reason
- Democracy & Colaboration

Our Purpose

To improve the political representation of the American people and the efficacy of their government

What it means to be a member of the Information Party

Becoming a member of the Information Party does not mean that you take on all of the stances of the Party at any one time or ever. In this sense, being a member of the Information Party means something very different from being a member of the Democratic, Republican, or Green Party. Rather, being an Info Party member means associating yourself with our core values, not any specific political stances.